

ABSTRACT

A CRITICAL ANALYSIS ON TRANSNATIONAL ORGANIZED CRIMES IN SAARC COUNTRIES FROM THE LENS OF INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

RAKSHANDHA DARAK

This research paper focuses on the concept of transnational organized crimes in the SAARC Countries. It majorly discusses about the operation of drug trafficking, illegal migration and cross border terrorism in the SAARC countries. It also predominately discusses the international relations among these countries while discussing the position of India with its neighboring countries. It states that the menace of such transnational organized crimes is creating an impact on the global order of the world. Such crimes affect the international relations of the countries. Thus, settling for bitter talks and agreements.

Key Words: Transnational Organized Crimes, SAARC countries, international relations, drug trafficking, illegal migration, cross border terrorism.